Re: Accreditation Letter for World Genesis Foundation

Dear Heather Caton,

As Executive Director of UNESCO Center for Peace, I have been working since 2004 to promote the ideals of UNESCO all over the United States and assist in the creation of new UNESCO Clubs, Centers and Associations. Last July, the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO sanctioned that leadership by appointing me as the Chair of the U.S UNESCO Clubs Working Group, it is in that capacity that I am writing to you today.

I am pleased to write this letter to confirm your recognition by the U.S UNESCO Clubs Working Group as a formal UNESCO Club, we have determined that you meet the requirement. Your organization is hereby accredited as a formal UNESCO Club operating in the United States.

Your first order of business is to develop a bylaw with a mission clearly stating your UNESCO aspiration and a clear process of selecting board of directors, office bearers and/or your executive committee members. Each quarter, you are required to send an electronic copy of your activities to the Working Group at USclubsworkinggroup@unescocenterforpeace.org

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me by phone 240-498-3557 or by email gpdjoken@unescocenterforpeace.org

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Guy P. Djoken'.

Guy P. Djoken, MBA
Executive Director
